

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents the conclusion and suggestion as the result of this research and suggestions for the next researcher.

5.1. Conclusion

In pantungi of Hadi, there are some certain structures. They are framework, construction, word and syllable, rhyme, sound repetition, tone, language style, figure of speech, and syntax formation.

In pantungi of Hadi as well, there are some stanzas and lines which have relationship with the social condition of Durian village. It can be classified in five domains. They are love and mercy, livelihood, local product, art, environment, and superstition. These all is the worldview of Durian village

Obviously, the western theory about sociology of literature spescifically genetic structuralism that commonly used to anlyze the western literature as well, can be applied in local literature, in this case pantungi.

5.2. Suggestion

The researcher would like to give some suggestions related with this research. The first, for the students who want to know about pantungi, sociology of literature and genetic structuralism theory, and this research can be reference for them. Finally, I wish there will be other researcher who choose other local literature for their research and analyze by using other western theory. Moreover, for the students who want to compare between the western literature and local literature, this research can be the starting point.
