

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Based on the above discussion can be concluded that the protagonist Nathan is a figure that has a simple character in the story that there was no change in character from beginning to end. Nathan has a wide range of character that is cowardly, humorous, bored, responsibility, fragile yet strong, courageous, have a strong feeling, able to withstand the emotional, indecisive, suspicious, curious, caring, and has a strong imagination. Several of character is classified into several groups such as the character of physical, intellectual, emotional, social, and philosophical.

5.2 Suggestion

This research is intended to help the students of English Department or reader to understand the Literature theory especially on the analysis character in the movie "Abduction". Besides, it can help us to understand the Movie itself. This skripsi is still far from perfect. Therefore, the further research is needed.