

ABSTRACT

Cipmawati Mohune. 921 409 098. 2013. The Influence of The Implementation of Region Management Information System on The Quality of Financial Statement of Regional Government at Department of Revenue, Management of Financial and Region's Assets of Gorontalo District. Accounting Study Program, Accounting Department, Faculty of Economics and Business, Universitas Negeri Gorontalo. The Principal Supervisor was Hartati Tuli, SE.Ak, M.Si and the co-supervisor was Lukman Pakaya, S.Pd, M.SA.

This research aimed to know the influence of the implementation of region management information system on the quality of financial statement of regional government at Department of revenue, management of financial and region's assets of Gorontalo District. The research population was 25 people who are the employees at this department. Research data were questionnaire as the primary data. The simple linear regression analysis was the technique of analysis of this research.

Research result showed that the implementation of region management information system influenced significantly to the quality of financial statement of regional government at Department of revenue, management of financial and region's assets of Gorontalo District. It was approved by the value of determinant coefficient which was 75.3%. It meant that the quality of financial statement was influenced 75.3% by the region management information system.

Keywords: The Implementation of Region Management Information System, The Quality of Financial Statement of Regional Government

