

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

Conclusion

Based on the research finding, it can be concluded as follows:

➤ Conflict of the main character

The main character of this Last Song novel is Ronnie and it has conflict with her namely internal conflict character versus self and conflict character versus character. In this Last Song Novel, it can be conclude that the kind of conflict that is conflict character versus character. It can be conclude that Ronnie has many conflict namely character versus character with her father (Steve), her boy friend (Will), her friend Marcus and Blaze. The conflict of Ronnie with Will is about miscommunication and misunderstanding. At least, it can be conclude that the conflict can be solved by communication.

➤ Values that reflected from the conflict

The value in internal conflict that is make a good relationship in family life because is the most important thing that should be take care.

The value in external conflict is the value can be found that in the novel is characters versus society also known as man vs. Society is basicly how the main character is seen to everyone else.

Suggestion

The writer suggests that to teach a literary work especially the novel, it should not longer, so the students will not bored. In addition, it should pose the actual problem so that the students attention will be on track constantly.

Conflict, is not only a part if novel, it is interested to be investigated in order to get a positive message and novel is not only talking about violence and entertaining but it also containing a positive message. So, the writer suggest to the next research to investigate the analysis of conflict in other novel.