

ABSTRACT

Igo patingki, 2013. Analysis Acronyms in the America Movies

The research is focused to know how the acronyms word formation in the movies. This subject of this research is a movie and I as the instrument. The method which is used in this research is qualitative method. The data are collected by watching five movies more than one time. Acronyms are the process of a new word which is formed by the initial letters of the constituent words of a phrase or sentence. The acronyms word divided into two kinds. The first is pronounced as a word and the last is pronounced as sequences of letters. According to Wisniewki (2007:05), word formations denote the process of creation of new word and creation of a new term is quite easy to perceive. Sometimes it is a dispute as blending. It is still a morphological change or making a new word from initial letters. The result this research based on my documentation, the researcher found that there are 11% is acronyms which is pronounced as a word and the 89% is the acronyms which is pronounced as sequences of letters. Based on the result, the researcher assumed that there are many actors or actress used the words acronyms which are pronounced as sequences of letters. Based on the finding, the using acronyms in the word or in activity of language make speakers, readers and listener easily and simply do their activity. Sometimes the acronyms make the people to use as slang. It is because the following era modern and development of language because the language is arbiter.
