

ABSTRACT

Meldian Musa. “Moral value in Oliver Twist Movie (Directed by Roman Polanski in 2005 based on Novel written by Charles Dickens)”. English Department, Letters and culture Faculty, State University of Gorontalo. Advisor 1: Dr. Suleman Bouti, M.Hum, Advisor 2, Farid Muhammad, S.Pd, M.A

This research aims to get the description about moral values in Oliver Twist movie directed by Roman Polanski based on novel written by Charles Dickens. This research applies the library research to analyze data; technique of collecting the data is look for important data, watch the movie and then read script and takes note. This research is described descriptively the data by using Hartman’s Theory about moral values. It is found two kinds of moral they are positive and negative moral values. The positive moral values found in Oliver Twist Movie are self-control, courage, fidelity, radiant virtue, and wisdom. Meanwhile, the negative moral values found are abhorrence, disdain, and fault.

Key Words: Moral Value, Oliver Twist, Character