

Chapter 5

Conclusion

From analysis of Oliver Twist movie, the researcher found several conclusions. The main character is Oliver twist he is kind, brave, innocent patient and charming and also forgiving boy.

After analyzing the movie, the moral value in the Oliver twist movie has been divided in two parts namely positive value and negative value. In positive value they are patience, braveness, loyalty, helpful and parental love, in negative value they are jealous, insult and underestimate, ungratefulness and thieving. Positive moral is good way for us and we have to follow it and for negative value is bad way which do not have to follow it and ignore it. From analyzing moral values hopefully it can build the good character for us as a human to solve the problem wisely and with right way.
