

Chapter V

Conclusion and Suggestion

Conclusion

Arthur or King Arthur is a legend of Britain. After studying the struggle of life of the main character in Antoine Fuqua's movie "King Arthur", the researchers takes some conclusions that can be used as reflection in our live.

1. Arthur is the great man who brought peace and unity to England even though he was from Rome.
2. After fight 15 years Arthur's make Briton united in one country which people know is Britain and he become and known as King Arthur.
3. The readers can take moral lesson from Arthur life. He is not a weak person. Even though he lived alone also the reader would know that there is no struggle without any sacrifice.

Suggestion

The writer has some suggestion related to her analysis as the following below:

1. The researcher hopes that the readers and the watchers can understand about the story in the movie.
2. The readers and the watchers can get a moral lesson from the main character.

3. The researchers also expect that the readers and the watchers will be interested in watching and discussing this movie.
4. The writer realizes that this research still far from being perfect but the researcher hope it will be useful for the readers, especially for students who are going to write their research soon and use this paper as one of their references.
5. There are still another intrinsic element of movie such as theme, plot, and the intrinsic element. The researcher hopes that there is a next researcher who will complete their research because the story of King Arthur is very interesting to analyze.