

ABSTRACT

Pohuwato is generally known as a socialist and religious. Where to increasing economic growth, and high population growth in all its activities, it must be supported by adequate infrastructure. Given the background of a very strong Islamic religion and the great influence of Islam in Pohuwato, it is necessary to create a place that can be used as the center of all activities ranging from activities peribatan Islamic, educational centers, religious teaching, education, military to social functions other economic then it was known as the House of Allah (mosques) .