

Abstraksi :

House of the Custody of the State is the implementing unit under the Auspices of the Ministry of law and Human rights Republik of Indonesia. House of Custody of State is the gateway to the criminal justice system, where those who capture or caught in related criminal ceses the law both men and women for the purpose of investigation, prosecution and examination at the council of the judiciary.