

CHAPTER V

Conclusion and Suggestion

This chapter presents the conclusion and suggestion of this research. The conclusion provides as the result of categorized and analyze the data. Then, suggestion leads further researchers who are attract or interest to analyze similar topic of research.

Conclusion

After conducting research and discussing the problem statement about analyzing on their acts to pursue their dreams by using the theory of American dreams, there are several characterizations both of them that have found as follow: first is about their acts to pursue dreams hard work, progress, individualism, freedom and also optimism. According to Adam (1931) evry American people are needs the principles in their life. American people believe there is no impossible in the world if there is hard work and believe on your self.

Based on research finding and discussing the problem, it can be concluded that this research finds other characterizations which contrast with the structural characterizations in the movie. In 16 wishes movie, Crista is not evil person such we believe and think but she is person that always hard work to get anything eventhough she is ambisious people but she never cheat. She always try to get her ambition in good way. On the other hand, Abby as protagonist person is an evil and bad person. The reason because she is cheat, and she knows it, but she did not believe on herself. She always use magic on all of her wishes, and it is not good. Based on their or act, they are doing opposites of their characters.

Suggestion

Based on the result of the research, there is a suggestion for the next researchers who are interesting in doing similar research. This research presents American study approach on characterizations of main characters in movie, which is focused on American dreams based on Truslow J. Adam's theory. It is also possible for students of English department to conduct further studies by analyzing main character. Good person if they do good way, but bad person if they are in wrong way. Then, do all your best and never do it in wrong way because it is cheat. Try to get it in good way, remember do not cheat but hard work to get the dreams because the process to get the dreams are important then the result.
