

ABSTRACT

Agus Priadi (3214 08 003) this study is determining the students' perception on English teacher skill, the research conducted at second grade students of smk paramita sangkub 2015/2016 academic years. first advisor prof. Dr. Hj. Moon H. Otoluwa, M.Hum and second advisor Titien F. Mohammad, S.Pd, M.App Ling.

This study is determining the students' perception on english teacher skill, In conducting this research. The writer uses qualitative research where the sample of this research obtained of 29 students of nursing and networking class. In measuring the data of research the writer used likert's formula by using questioner item.

In this research, the writer wants analyze the implementation of eight skills of teaching especially English teacher the eight skill are, skill of question, skill of reinforcement, variation, explanation, open and close class, guide the small discussion, managing class, teaching the small group and individual. The writer found the sum of the eight skill is 79,42% (likert's criterion "very good"). and the whole data measured by using likert formula.

Beside on the data above , the writer thought that the English school at smk paramita sangkub

Keyword: students' perception, English teacher skill