father and his tribe see for yourself how his father was murdered and massacred his tribe. Conan who should not deserve to participate in the war because of age of Conan still early but circumstances forced him and participates in the war. Conan has been trying to help his father but could not force Conan bearing down khalar zym strength. Conan's father was also at that time could not do anything to save himself, his son and his tribe as Conan's father in a state chained. Finally, Conan's father died before Conan and his tribe are also depleted in khalar zym killed by troops. Conan of Cimmeria lived alone remaining and is not killed by khalar zym. Conan continues to run until the adult working only kill, steal, climb high walls, across the sea was all he did to survive so that he can avenge the khalar zym. For depend of someone's life of course come from of the character in each human individual.
