ABSTRACT

Riri Sewang, 2012. Increasing Ability of Writing Descriptive Essay through Process Skill Approach on Students at Class V of SDN 3 Telaga, Gorontalo District. Skripsi. Bachelor Study Program of Elementary School Teacher Education, Department of Elementary School Teacher Education, Faculty of Education, State University of Gorontalo. The principal supervisor was Dra. Hj. Salma Halidu, S.Pd, M.Pd and the co-supervisor was Hj. Sumarni Mohamad, S.Pd, M.Pd.

The problem statement of this research was "does the implementation of process skill approach increase ability of students at class V of SDN 3 Telaga, Gorontalo District in writing descriptive essay?". This research aimed at increasing ability of writing descriptive essay through process skill approach on students at Class V of SDN 3 Telaga, Gorontalo District. The number of students was 20 students. The method applied in this research was classroom action research which was divided into two cycles. The techniques of data collection were test, observation, and documentation during the learning process.

The research result showed that in prior observation, the students who were able to write descriptive essay were 5 students or 25% and the rest 15 students of 75% were not able yet. In cycle I, it increased to 13 or 65% students who were able to write the descriptive essay while 7 students or 35% were not yet. In cycle II the students who were able to write the descriptive essay increased 17 students or 85% while there were only 3 students or 15% who were not yet able to write the descriptive essay. Thus, it can be concluded that by applying process skill approach, the ability of students at class V of SDN 3 Telaga, Gorontalo District in writing descriptive essay can be increased.
