Conclusion

Based on the research findings, it can be conclude that after applying reading journal the students can get more vocabulary, they also can easily to find out the main idea of the text and they can add many knowledge in reading. Then, applying reading journal in teaching is very important to support the teaching and learning process in classroom because the students will be interested and motivated in learning. Beside that it can help to the teacher to know the level of students in reading.

Suggestion

Based on the conclusion of this research, I have some suggestions concerning the research finding are:

For the students, the students should be more attractive with the reading journal as a strategy given by the teacher. It can helps the students in motivated their reading in add knowledge then makes the students easy to think when they reading and every students also has to provide feedback each other. So, it can easy for them to achieve their reading ability.

For the teacher, by using reading journal the lecturer or teacher could apply the reading journal as a strategy to develop students reading ability, The teachers can know the extent to which the skills and knowledge of each student in learning reading and  teacher can use reading journals as strategies in teaching reading.

For reader, they can use this research as a literature for them and also it can help the next researcher who wants to conduct the research as a reference.
