

Chapter V

Conclusion and Suggestion

This chapter explains the conclusion and suggestion of this research.

Conclusion

From the result of research and the discussion above, the researcher can give conclusion:

There are some factors that caused the decreasing of students' interest in learning English. They are motivation factors such as the teacher way to arouse the students' interest in learning English. Then teacher factors such as teaching method and strategy, and the last is facilities or media such as the use of media to support the teaching and learning process.

Suggestion

The researcher formulated some suggestions for the English teachers and the students'. Suggestion for English teacher is they need to improve their ability and could be creative to teach English in class and make the students' interested in learning English. In this section the researcher would like to give suggestions for English teacher as follows:

For the English teacher, the teacher's creativity can support the improvement of the students' interest which can produce a good achievement too. Therefore, it is expected to the teachers to be able to manage the learning activities by using models, methods, media and strategy that can arouse students' interest in learning English. The second, English teachers not only teach skills but also the norms of practice expected of teachers in school, both inside and outside the classroom. It is because teachers' creativity can help teachers in carry out they role in class as well reaching the goal of teaching and learning class. Thus, do not be lazy and have to creative in creating fun situation in teaching and learning process so that the students could have an interest in learning English.

For the students, they need to always study at home, active in the learning group, working exercises that given by the teacher and actively follow other activities held in school so that can broaden the knowledge of the students in learning.
