

CHAPTER V

Conclusion and Suggestion

This chapter described about the conclusion and the recommendation based on the research.

Conclusion

The researcher analyzes the stylistic device of caption in data from Bigshots. It is a category in www.newsweek.com which displays the best journalistic photos from several photographers around the world. The researcher took 20 (twenty) data from Bigshot of www.newsweek.com.

Those data are displayed on the Research Findings.

The result of this research is clearly described on the Table 1 of Research Finding.

Table 1

No	Style	Appearance
1	Alliteration	11 Times
2	Personification	1 Time
3	Metonymy	3 Times
4	Assonance	1 Time
5	Hyperbole	3 Times
6	Ellipsis	4 Times

The result of research shows that out of twenty data there are 11 data used alliteration. The next mostly used is ellipsis with 4 data, the next is hyperbole and metonymy with 3 data and then personification and assonance with 1 data each. Hence, the most used linguistic devices in photo caption of Bigshots of www.newsweek.com is alliteration.

In addition, there are some data that indicated into more than one linguistic devices they are datum 2 which categorized into alliteration and personification, datum 3 which alliteration and metonymy and datum 6 alliteration and assonance that is why the data which are only 20 turned to be 23 at the table. According to Lehtsalu (1973), Alliteration is a term that describes a literary stylistic device. Alliteration occurs when a series of words in a row (or close together) have the same first consonant sound. Alliteration in a photo caption according to researcher makes the words has an aesthetic meaning that makes the caption more beautiful and easy to remember.

Suggestion

This research can be a useful pilot of study or references of some people. First for the English Department students, particularly to be a pilot of study or references for the next research related to the topic. In fact, this study is not only can be useful for people who study linguistic but also in literature. Not only for English Department, the other department such as Bahasa Indonesia also can be used this as references. For the teacher, educator, lecturer or future teacher who teach to be an additional information for the related study. This research also can be used by photojournalist to be references for their work. In addition, this research hopefully also can be useful for all people who have interest in literature, linguistic, education, journalism and many more.
