

Chapter V: Conclusion and Suggestion

In this chapter, the researcher concludes and reports about the result of the research. This part is divided into conclusion and suggestion.

Conclusion

Based on the data in finding and discussion, the researcher made some conclusion of this research. Firstly, students need helps to solve their problems faced in the class and the teacher also should know the students' problems. Moreover, after they find students' problems in the class, they come with creative method that can make students' solve their problems. Second, picture media was useful in terms helping the students enhanced their ability in writing descriptive text. It was proved by the result of data in pre-test and post-test which showed that there were significant differences between pre-test and post test data. In addition, the data was done calculating in statistically and the final result supported the hypothesis which state that "picture media can enhancing students' writing in descriptive text". Third, the students were enjoyed their class. It because they have background knowledge with the topic of writing text that researcher gave. Fourth, students have problems in two aspect of writing which are grammar and vocabulary. The students' problem in grammar was in several aspects which are the use of tense, personal pronoun and to be. While in vocabulary, the students were confused with the words they had produced and choosing appropriate words for their written text. The last, the researcher assumed that picture media was a useful method and worked well with appropriate action in the class.

Suggestion

Based on the result of researchers' findings related to this research, the researcher would like give some suggestion such as: firstly, the teacher should be paid more attention on students' problems in the class and find appropriate method to help students solve their learning problems. Second, students need to learning seriously to enhance their ability related to English language and especially in writing class. Third, for English Department this research probably uses to be a reference for the next researcher which chooses related study with this research.
