

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this session, I would like to present the conclusion of this research and also suggestion in case of developing students' ability in writing recount text.

5.1 Conclusion

In the communication between one and the other people is happen two ways. Oral and writing. In the educational curriculum, writing include in one skill which should be taught in junior and senior high school. Relation to my topic of research which is focused enhancing ability in writing recount text, I applied mind mapping technique as technique in the process learning.

In this research , Hypothesis of this research is acceptable. In other meaning if mind mapping technique can enhancing writing students' ability in recount text. with t-count more than of t-table or 5,31.>2,07.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the research finding and conclusion above, it can be suggested as follows: Firstly, in the process of learning needed of creatively of teacher for example with using mind mapping technique, the teacher must to arrange good teaching. With mind mapping technique, the students can be to enthusiastic in the process writing learning recount text.