

CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, The researcher presents the conclusion and suggestion about the result of his research.

Conclusion

In teaching and learning process, procedure text is the most important when the students want to do something in or out door. In the the various of procedure text , the students need to comprehend the generic structure of procedure text such as the goals, material or ingredients and steps. It considered as the activity that have to do in the present because procedure text involved the students' capability to make something. In this case, the teacher should be able to find out the appropriate material to overcome the problem of lacking the vocabularies. The reseacher found that the appropriate material which can be used in increasing the vocabularies text is procedure text. Therefore, the students' desire will be activated. This material can motivate the students to memorize the vocabularies because it involves the real activity.

Suggestion

The teacher should find the appropriate or a good material which are suitable for students for increasing their vocabularies. Also, teacher should give motivation through the student that will make them know the important of achievement.

Moreover, in increasing the students' vocabularies, teacher should give more attention to the all aspects of vocabularies such as verb, noun and adjective.

When the researcher conducted this research, the researcher found that students' vocabularies is limited and their knowledge is low. Beside the students still confuse to determine the verb, noun and adjective.
