This research is aims to investigate the Lecturers perceptions about the implementation of bilingual program at Department of Chemistry. The data was collected by using interviewing and documentation the lecturers who were teaching in Bilingual Class at Chemistry Department, and the data was analyzed by using qualitative descriptive method. The participants of this study are six lecturers who were selected based on their experiences in teaching bilingual class around four years. The data analyzed after finding and classifying the specific information that was revealed from interview and documentation. The result of this study shows that the Lecturers assumed that this program gave a positive side for them as a lecturer, but based on the lecturers' point of view this program is not too maximal implemented because of some factors such as lecturers' problem who has limited English proficiency and there is no insufficient facility that support this program to be better. Therefore, by following training is a great way for lecturers to prepare their selves in teaching bilingual class.
