

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

Conclusion

After conducting the research and the problem statement about values show on Maleficent and Frozen movies, the research can conclude that both of the movies has values that can be adopted and applied in the real life. Moreover, from the 18 data analysis found, these category of moral and family value, they are relate love, brotherhood, friendship, never give up, enthusiasm, love and affection, sincerity, bravery, kindhearted, loyalty, and sacrificing to other.

In addition, the character in both of the movies has personality which control by id, ego and superego. There are some characters that follow his desire to get something without think about other consequences because their id is dominated them. However, some of character act based on principle of reality because of their ego and the other characters used to think the right and the wrong thing before act something. They is controll by their superego.

Moreover, by seeing both of the movies, the researcher can conclude that both of movie have a different story from the other movie that have the same genre because the true love is because the family relationship that love each other without a stipulation. The love is automatically appear from the inside of heart is not like to other story that a true love happened between a couple that falling in love because have a comfort each other. The love can loss whenever when the couple it's not the same way. However, true love in both of movie is not being split by time until the end because they are already have the love from the inside of heart. And the love appears by natural so that make a family relationship between them.

Suggestion

Based on the result oth the research, this research give some suggestion. This study present the analysis of values especially moral value and family value. Also, this reseach presents analysis phycological aspects which portray on the characters in movie, which is three major components of psychological based on Sigmund Freud frameworks. In addition, this research will be a new reference about the analysis of values composite with psychological aspects. Then, this research will be a good example for the next researcher who wants to conduct the same field of research. The researcher hopes this research will help the further researcher to conducts research of values composite with psychological aspects in the other form of literary works such as novel, poetry and drama in the purpose of enriching literature studies.
